INSTITUTIONAL DISTINCTIVENESS

Title: WE-AIM (Women Empowerment- Activities for Integral Maturation)

Fulfilling its vision and mission, St. Xavier's College for Women, Aluva ensures the formation and development of its students into responsible women who can contribute to the creation of a better society by initiating a change in the world they live in. As majority of the student population hail from remote areas and from backward communities, they are denied many of the facilities which the communities of mainstream enjoy. There are first generation learners too who come to the college with the dream of emancipating not only their life pattern but also the ideologies of their communities.

All the activities planned and carried out in the institution are centred on inclusive women empowerment through educational, social and cultural enhancement rooted in altruistic values and professional outlook. Affirming gender equality and inclusion, all the programmes and activities help the students to grow into responsible women in varied roles like successful professionals, promising entrepreneurs and excellent home makers. To achieve the goal, programmes and club activities that exhort leadership, promote career advancement, instil eco-sensitivity, infuse constitutional awareness, and self- efficiency are regularly conducted to help them excel in life, thus making their distinctive contribution to the betterment of the world.

The Practice:

Aiming at the holistic development of the students, the college has devised a mechanism to promote the innate talents of the students through myriad initiatives so as to instill in them a scientific temperament through theoretical and practical exposition. The institution has charted various facets of women empowerment that needs to be addressed for a rounded-out development and to ensure integral maturation which are realized through various clubs, cells, organizations and associations which function on a regular basis. Each club / cell / association is assigned with 2 faculty coordinators who select one / two student secretaries to initiate varied activities ensuring maximum participation of students. Under the student leadership, varied programmes are carried out inside and outside the campus contouring the myriad critical concerns of women empowerment. The activities of each club are diverse in nature integrating the UNAI principles and SDGs to ensure a holistic and value added development.

The areas focussed are:

Empowerment through Human Rights and Legal Knowledge: With the view to impart awareness of individual rights and social positions that they are entitled to constitutionally and to inculcate self-confidence among students to articulate and assert the power of independent decision making, the college has institutionalised certain clubs and cells, the events of which are proof of the positive impact of the ventures:
