Discussions and Decisions Taken :

- Tentative date for the IQAC meeting with external members is Sep 12
- NAAC data updation for 17-18 and 18-19 should be done systematically at the earliest
- Students wing of IQAC must be strengthened
- Respective IQAC members should prepare the AQAR for 2017-18 criteria-wise by the 3rd week of September. The final report will be presented in the council on Sep 30. The UG results as on June 30th and PG results as on Dec should be taken for the AQAR 17-18 - Dr. Sheena
- Flood relief extended by the staff, departments and the institution must be counted as part of Extension activities. Proper records should be maintained for the same.
- House construction for the worst affected students must be taken up by the departments with the help of Kerala Action Force and other external agencies
- Students should take classes for the students of Govt. school as part of Academic extension. Members in charge of Extension should arrange the same
- E-governance should be improved- should arrange an orientation class

- Should discuss with the staff of other institutions to know more about how to address each criteria
- Departments should take initiative to visit the houses of the flood affected students – to decide their most compelling needs and to help them in the ways possible. To address their issues in the Adalath on Sep 22 – to make them aware about the possibilities to retrieve the lost documents and other necessities. If possible, the teachers themselves should take up this cause and do the needful for the sake of students.
- If any students are compelled to drop the course because of flood, it should be intimated to the Principal
- RPC must be strengthened in more innovative ways. Should send proposal for ISBN number, so that each department and the staff can avail the number if needed.
- MOODLE should be implemented compulsorily in all departments. Assignments should be given via MOODLE platform.
- All the staff members should engage in e-content development. Can seek the help of Dr. Ansa Alphonsa and Communicative English Dept.
