

ST. XAVIER'S COLLEGE FOR WOMEN, ALUVA
REACCREDITED BY NAAC WITH A GRADE (CGPA 3.33)

BHOOMITHRASENA CLUB
ANNUAL REPORT
2018-2019

ANNUAL REPORT OF BHOOMITHRASENA CLUB 2018-2019

- World Environment Day' on June 5th was observed.
- The official inauguration of the celebration was done by distribution of tree saplings to students by the Ward counselor Mrs. Sarala K V.
- Members also distributed *plants and saplings to public. Planted saplings in the college campus and Gov. Guest house Aluva.
- Pledge to conserve the nature was also held. Members made cloth bag for distribution.
- Club members attended workshop at Naipunya college on “how to convert fruit waste to Organic multipurpose cleaning lotion”.
- Members studied the biodiversity of pokkali fields. Integrated farming approach was demonstrated to the members by Dr. Shobha Agronomist Rice research station, under Kerala Agricultural University.
- Seminar on the topic “Wetlands” and the “Pokkali cultivation” was held. The members visited the tissue culture lab such as banana, orchids.
- Members visited duck and fish farming cultivation fields.
- An exposure to various instruments to measure rainfall, temperature, and wind direction were given to the club members.
- Bhoomithrasena club along with Social forestry department initiated Cleaning Campaign. As part of the wetland day observation members visited Mangalavanam mangrove forest.
- Quiz on wetland and nature was also held. Elocution, essay writing, painting and photography competition on the theme wetland and climate change was conducted.

Competition Winning photo

Duck Cultivation

Seminar-Pokkali cultivation

Rice Research Station, Vyttila

Water testing- Post flood analysis

Planting

Seedling distribution

Planting Inauguration- World Environment Day

Planting Inauguration- World Environment Day

PRINCIPAL