6. Objective of the Program :

The Peace Club aims to facilitating peace of mind and spirit not only among the students of the college but also among the wider public. As the social, economic and political issues ravage the society in many different ways, St. Xavier's College for Women deem it its responsibility to bolster the community to find ways to attain peace and harmony. The Club organise activities under its banner so as to sensitise the students and the public to work together to ensure one'[s own and others' peace.

7. Detailed description of the event :

The members of the club attended an International conference organized by Loyola Institute of Peace and International Relations. The members interacted with the resource person and the delegates from Santa Clara University, California, USA. The Co-ordinators, Dr. Saumi Mary M and Ms. Jasmine Gonsalvez were invited as the members of the Core Team Committee to propose , suggest and recommend for transforming Peace as an academic discipline. The interactions helped to contemplate on various aspects of peace and its related issues.

The Peace Club members also initiated to distribute food packets to the needy in and around Aluva. The food packet distribution was done on every Wednesdays.

The Peace Club Members also helped to distribute food packets and basic amenities to the flood affected regions in and around Aluva.

8. Outcome of the event/Evaluation by Program Coordinator:

The Peace Club activities were impactful as they indoctrinated the golden principle of peace and harmony among students and public. The endeavours of the peace club members to alleviate the starvation of the needy was a positive sign form which students were motivated to think about their responsibility towards the society. The sensitisation programmes of the club also provided integral maturity to the students.
