COMAX 2019-2020

Introduction

Education aims at all round development of a student. Educational institutions have a great mission to ignite the minds of the young. The Department of Commerce at St.Xavier's College for Women does take pains to use the effective tools to revitalize the youth and bring meaning and purpose in their lives. One such attempt is the existence of COMAX- Commerce Association. COMAX provides a pleasant, social and co-operative environment where the teachers and students feel free. The planning and arrangement is such that it provides an inviting and stimulating environment. It is a place for doing rather than talking. It provides opportunities to students to use facts in a creative way to arrive at their independent conclusions and enable them to grow in enriched knowledge, abilities, skill and interest. COMAX has conducted competitions in extracurricular activities which also have good responses from various departments. COMAX also send students to various institutions who have reaped the fruits in various competitions held by other institutions and associations.

Objectives

1. Provides opportunities to the students for enriching their experiences.
2. Supplements the curriculum work.
3. Helps in making constructive use of leisure time.
4. Helps in the exploration of occupational interest of students.
5. Provides opportunities for the practice of group planning and decision.
6. To make future entrepreneurs
