7. Detailed description of the event : Human Rights Forum of the college observed Constitution day on 29th November 2017 to impart awareness about the principles of our constitution. The preamble was read out by Rev. Sr. Principal on the same day. A Talk was organized on the topic "Fundamental Duties of an Indian Citizen in the Constitutional Perspective" by Prof. Babu, V.C, Former HOD of Political Science, St.Peter's College, Kolenchery. A Paper on 'Gandhism and Toleration' presented by Ms. Greeshma.C and Ms. Roshni Jose of II DC Economics. A Skit on 'Fundamental Rights and Duties' was also presented by II DC Students.
8. Outcome of the event/Evaluation by Program Coordinator: Considering the need of a deliberative democratic culture, college constituted a human right forum with a view to inculcate human rights awareness in our constitutional perspective among the college students. We hope that the programmes in connection with the constitution day help to educate the students about their fundamental rights and duties, so as to develop the human personality and strengthen their respect for human rights, democratic culture and fundamental freedoms. It promotes understanding, tolerance and friendship among the individuals. It tries to promote equality in human dignity. We believe that the above activities have strived to establish a culture where the constitutional ideals, rights and duties of civic citizens are understood, defended and respected among the students.
